A Gambler's Jury is laid out in a way the reader may pick up the clues Dani, and her detective missed up until the jury is in, which leads to an exciting ending. A good lead-in novel to a series.

A Gambler's Jury by Victor Methos - Goodreads

The Gambler's Jury stands with The Neon Lawyer as his best works. The Invisible Client is almost as good. Methos does a great job developing the characters including protagonist attorney Dani Rolling, her teenage son, her ex-husband, the defendant in this drug case, her investigator, and even the judge.
