Project MUSE - At Home in Diaspora: Armenians in America

The Centre for Contemporary Art, Lagos (CCA, Lagos) and KADIST, Paris are pleased to present Diaspora at Home a group exhibition which provides an opportunity to engage in a variety of conversations on the issue of mobility within Africa. The exhibition is presented in memory of Bisi Silva (1962 - 2019), founder of CCA, Lagos who strongly believed in promoting cultural exchanges and creating new networks throughout Africa.

At Home in Diaspora — University of Minnesota Press

Armenians around the diaspora live in multiethnic states and multicultural societies, often crossing cultural borders both within and between countries. Thus, the concept of "home" for many is both mobile and nomadic, more synonymous with family than a particular place.

Arab immigration to South and Central America. Since there are large numbers of immigrants to countries of Latin America, we present two posts, this one on the general movement of Arabs to the region, followed by another on individual countries where immigrants have found a home, some in significant numbers. In each, we'll look at the contributions they've made to their respective societies.
