Crimson Skies puts you in control of dashing air pirate Nathan Zachary. This protagonist is an over-acted bundle of radio drama clichés, yet it is clear the corniness of catch phrases ("Well, that was the cat's meow!") and certain overdone bravado in the voice acting is entirely intentional and part of the over-the-top heroic feel the game maintains throughout its 24 missions.

Crimson Skies Download (2000 Arcade action Game)

Crimson Skies is an incredibly fun game. The missions are varied and often quite challenging. I'm a pretty good dogfighter (note: no dogs are actually fought in playing this game), but the stunt and zeppelin missions sometimes took a frustratingly number of tries to get through.
