Slow to get into, but once I understood the history of the people and Heap House in general it grew on me. This book is narrated in two POV's, one being Clod Iremonger and the other being Lucy Pennant. Now lets see if I can explain the book.

Heap House, Iremonger Book One. Clod is an Iremonger. He lives in the Heaps, a vast sea of lost and discarded items collected from all over London. At the centre is Heap House, a puzzle of houses, castles, homes and mysteries reclaimed from the city and built into a living maze of staircases and scurrying rats.

The Iremonger Trilogy - Edward Carey Author

Heap House is so horrible it becomes horribly delightful. It is so over the top that I don't think it would actually scare a child and it is hilarious in it's bizarreness. This has to be one of the most original books ever and I liked it so
