Although i will need to substitute the eye contact for something else, like a more open body language. Tricksters tend to be a bit less charismatic in my opinion, but I'm happy this helps. In fact he will begin as a rogue and take the turn to trickster along the way, becoming more gritty and cynical.

Love was never this tenacious. He is fear himself. She, who fears him. On the first day of her new life, at a new school, she is thrown to him by fates for his amusement. But amusement is the least of what she rouses in him. Like an obsession she burns in him. With one look she owned his soul. Now all he wants is to own her. Body and soul make her his.
