MORBID CURIOSITY: Celebrity Tombstones Across America
"MORBID CURIOSITY: Celebrity Tombstones Across America." It is a fascinating book about celebrities, their tombstones and final stories. Although there have been various books of the same genre, MORBID CURIOSITY approaches this topic in a whole new way. This book is not about obscure faceless people from years ago.

I don't remember reading any of this in the book, but I read this in 'Morbid Curiosity-Celebrity Tombstones Across America'. Quite possibly she figured the readers didn't need ALL the gory details. I don't know--Freddie seemed like a really good guy and a great son, but I did find him demanding and mostly thinking of himself before others.
