Speaker for the Dead does not remind me of any television shows, movies, or other books. Any boy or girl from about age fifteen and up whom likes science-fiction would enjoy this book. Also, if you have read and liked any other Orson Scott Card book, then you will love this book. That is what I think of Speaker for the Dead.

Speakers researched a deceased person's life and gave a speech that attempted to speak for them, describing the person's life as he or she lived it. Speakers for the Dead arose as a movement in response to the novels The Hive Queen and The Hegemon, written by the pen name of Andrew Wiggin, the Speaker for the Dead.
